EXHIBITIONS

THE BIG SHOW

25 FEBRUARY – 11 JUNE

The BIG Show is a radically inclusive exhibition highlighting the creativity of young people in Upper Hutt. With drawings, paintings, sculpture and more, from over 100 artists ages 5–18, this exhibition will present a diverse group of work straight from the imaginations of our tamariki and rangitahi.

To submit a work

Make something! It can be 2D or 3D as long as it is A4. All entries meeting requirements will be accepted. One work per artist. Fill in a contact form available at www.whirinakiarts.org.nz or at Whirinaki Whare Taonga. Drop your submission and entry form to Whirinaki Whare Taonga before Monday 13 Feb 2023. Every artist receives a BIG Show T Shirt and a ticket for two to the grand opening.

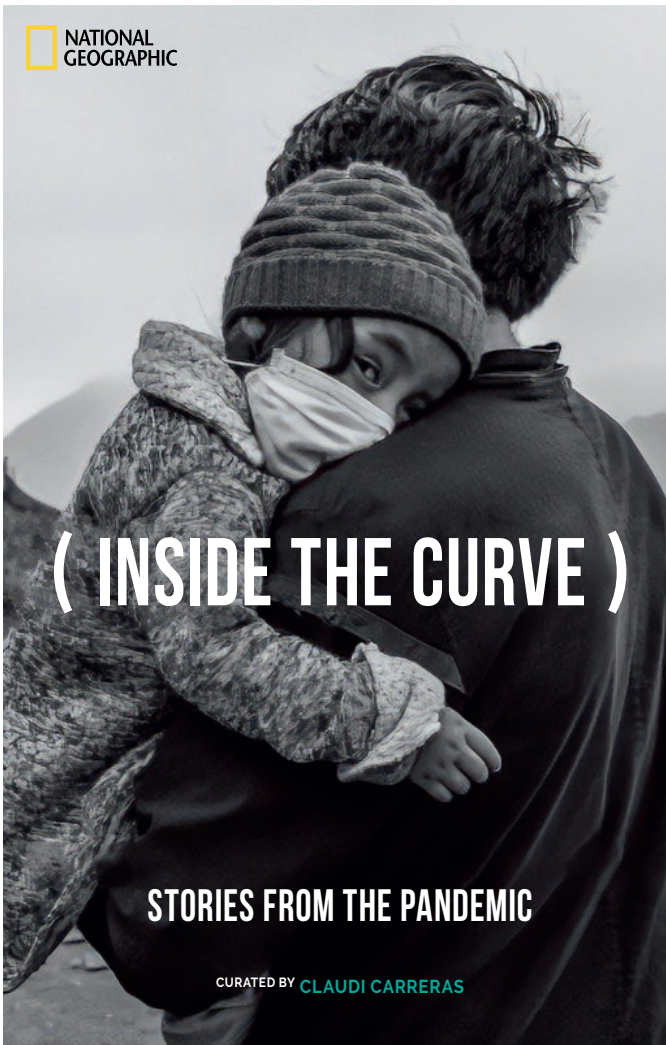

TATAU: TATAU SĀMOA MA ATA PU'E TATAU: SĀMOAN TATTOOING & PHOTOGRAPHY

4 MARCH – 28 MAY

This exhibition presents the work of four photographers who capture the dynamic practice of contemporary Sāmoan tatau (tattooing) over the last 40 years. Featuring New Zealand photographers Mark Adams and John Agcaoili, and Sāmoan artists Greg Semu and Angela Tiatia.

INSIDE THE CURVE: STORIES FROM THE PANDEMIC

3 JUNE – 27 AUGUST

See the COVID-19 pandemic, around the world, through the eyes of National Geographic storytellers.

At the outset of the unprecedented COVID-19 pandemic, National Geographic responded by creating a new fund in support of journalists and storytellers worldwide. The resulting penetrating work of these photographers richly illustrates a myriad of aspects of a world in crisis, elevating deeply personal local stories and giving them global reach.

THE WOMEN OF PUMPKIN COTTAGE

17 JUNE – 23 OCTOBER

Celebrate the female artists who painted at Pumpkin Cottage, led by Wellington artist and art teacher James Nairn, in and around the late 1800s. These artists were exploring Impressionism, the significant new art movement, which began in Paris in the 1860s.

The women painters were few, and often had to push societal boundaries for the right to have their own practice. Their story is one of strength and determination as they sought the freedom to paint. Featuring the work of Frances Hodgkins, Dorothy Richmond, Mabel Hill, Mary Tripe and Flora Scales, among others.

WINDOWS OF THE HEART

28 JANUARY – 27 MARCH

New work by Ron Te Kawa, which celebrates the people and fun, joy, and colour of Te Ao Māori. Te Kawa's unique quilting style explores mātauranga Māori, his whakapapa and atua wāhine (goddesses) through bold colour and a tactile application of materials. Breaking the rules of traditional quilt construction, all types of fabric are masterfully stitched together to illustrate scenes from his imagination, his history and the stories of the people influential to his life.
