THEATRE @ EXPRESSIONS

SEED

THURSDAY 12 JULY • 8PM • $20 • BOOKING RECOMMENDED

IVF isn't fool proof and IUDs aren't failsafe. I-Phones come with ovulation apps and being married doesn't mean you have to breed. Seed follows four women as they try to get pregnant, stay pregnant or not get pregnant—the dilemmas of modern reproduction. Seed is a drama that'll have you laughing till tears run down your face, and a comedy that'll make you cry.

Presented by Expressions Whirinaki Arts & Entertainment Centre in association with Arts on Tour

SONGS FOR NOBODIES

SATURDAY 1 SEPTEMBER • 8PM • $20 • BOOKING RECOMMENDED

Share five life-changing encounters between legendary divas and the everyday women whose lives they touched, interspersed with their iconic songs, including Billie Holiday, Edith Piaf and Judy Garland. Songs for Nobodies is a one-of-a-kind showcase that reminds us that everybody has a story—and a song—worth hearing, presented by Ali Harper.

Presented by Expressions Whirinaki Arts & Entertainment Centre in association with Ali-Cat Productions

ODD ONE OUT

TUESDAY 3 OCTOBER • 10AM • $8 • UNDER 2 ON KNEES FREE • BOOKING RECOMMENDED

Presented by Capital E, ODD ONE OUT is a great first show for young children. Gentle, delightful, magical, musical, playful – a joy to watch and guaranteed to strike a chord of wonder in younger children. Three curious creatures live a busy life in a world where everything has a purpose and a place... until one day things start to change.

Written by Jo Randerson and Thomas LaHood. Directed by Jo Randerson. Composer Jason Wright. Designers Tony De Goldi and Owen McCarthy. Presented by Expressions Whirinaki Arts & Entertainment Centre in association with Capital E National Theatre for Children.
